

The Roman Republic – Government

MAGISTRATES – cursus honorum

The Roman Constitution

The Social Class Order

	Historical facts	Constitution
800 B.C.	Founding of Rome (myth of Romulus and Remus, 753 B.C.)	Kingdom
509 B.C.	last king of Rome was deposed	Roman REPUBLIC
27 B.C. - 1453	Augustus becomes Princeps	Roman PRINCIPATUS Roman Empire

Characteristics of the Roman constitution:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • an uncodified set of guidelines and principles • largely unwritten • constantly evolving

The legacy of the Roman constitution

The Roman constitution was used as a template, often the only one, when the first constitutions of the modern era were being drafted. Because of this, many modern constitutions have superstructures which are similar, or even identical to the Roman constitution:

- checks and balances
- the separation of powers
- vetoes
- filibusters
- quorum requirements
- term limits
- impeachments
- the powers of the purse
- regularly scheduled elections

Impeach Trump
FireDonaldTrump.org

Let's Build Europe Together
2017-2019

Erasmus+