

Hello!

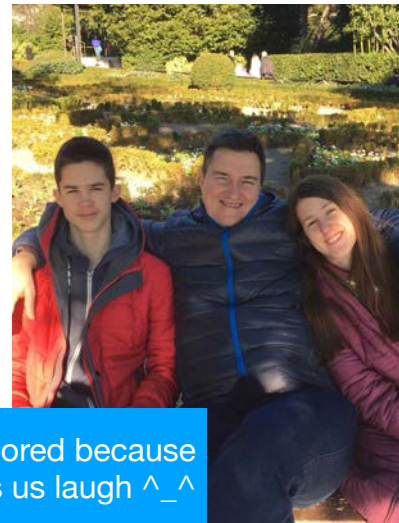

I was born on 30th April, 2002 and my parents decided to call me Hana ^^
I also have a twin brother who's 6 minutes younger than me :3
I live in a small town near Rijeka called Kastav. I moved here 5 years ago with my parents and brother. Bus for Rijeka is sometimes tricky to catch and I need to wait long for it but it's not big issue if I have someone to talk to while I'm waiting.

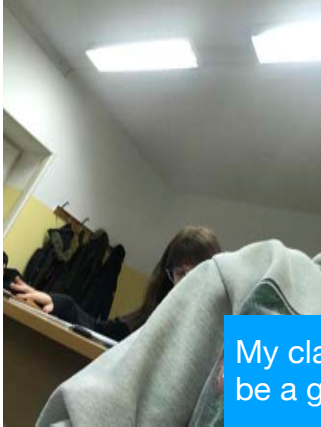

I live in a house with 2 floors, actually 3 because my mom has her dentist laboratory. My dad works in Capital city, Zagreb, so he has to travel every day for two in a half hours to get to work :S

My brother and me with my mom, she's the best cook in the world <33

And without my dad we would be bored because he always makes us laugh ^_^

Every day I need to get up at 6.30 to go to private high school Andrije Ljudevita Adamića. People there are great and professors teach us well. During the big break between classes we go to the shopping center to eat something and I think that's pretty cool.

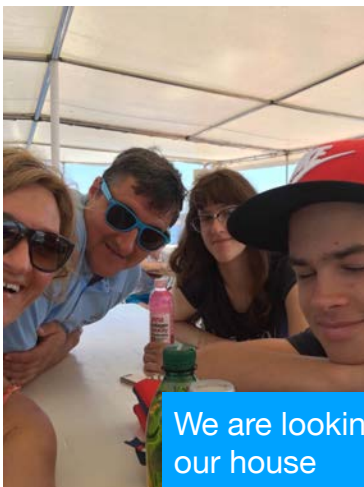

My classmate taking pictures of me while I'm trying to be a good student xD

In my free time I like to draw. Everyone's telling me how good I am at it but I wouldn't agree. I'm looking forward at getting better in it because I really enjoy it. While I draw I like to listen to music or watch TV shows.

My favorite TV show is the vampire diaries cause for some reason I like vampires and things connected to it. I can pretty much listen to a lot of music but I prefer rock.

Me (right) with my best friend (left), she's the most amazing person in the world

We are looking forward at having someone over to our house
